SUPREME COURT OF OKLAHOMA
ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS
1915 N. STILES, SUITE 305
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA 73105

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

On behalf of the Administrative Office of the Courts, and in accordance with the provisions of Title 20, Section 16.11, the Oklahoma Statutes, the Oklahoma Judiciary Annual Report and Statistical Appendix are presented to members of Oklahoma's Legislature and other concerned persons. The sole purpose of these publications is to provide detailed caseload information, financial data for trial and appellate courts, along with an overview of Oklahoma's Judicial system for Fiscal year 1987.

The Appellate Courts continue to experience a substantial increase in case filings, whereas the case filings in trial courts have somewhat leveled off. There still exists an ongoing need to evaluate the number and placement of trial judges in Oklahoma. The instability of Oklahoma's economy, coupled with the population shifts, have created some disparities in the number of cases handled per judge.

The financial reductions experienced by Oklahoma's governmental entities has been somewhat of a trial - looking back, I am pleased to report that these financial reductions in no way hindered the officials and staff in the Judicial Branch of Government. The delivery of superior quality services by judicial officials and members of the Oklahoma Bar Association continue to be provided to the citizens and litigants of Oklahoma.

During this year of the 200th anniversary of the nation's Constitution, I want to thank Chief Justice John B. Doolin and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for their continued support and leadership. To each Judge, Clerk, and Administrative Office staff member, I thank you for a job well done.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles E. Ferrell, Jr.

Charles E. Ferrell, Jr.
Administrative Director of the Courts

The Oklahoma Judiciary Annual Report for Fiscal Year 1987 and Statistical Appendix, printed by the Office of Public Affairs, Central Printing Division, are issued by the Administrative Director of the Courts as authorized by 20 O.S. 1981, §16.11. Seven Hundred (700) copies of the Annual Report and Five Hundred Fifty (550) copies of the Appendix have been prepared and distributed at a cost of $6,284. Copies of both have been deposited with the Publications Clearinghouse of the Oklahoma Department of Libraries.

Organizational Overview

The judicial branch of the government of the State of Oklahoma, which is constitutionally vested with powers separate and distinct from those of the legislative and executive branches, underwent a significant change in 1969 when a constitutional amendment, approved by state voters, went into effect. Since that time, no major changes in the structure of the judicial system have occurred.

Presently, the judicial power is vested in courts which fall into four categories: courts of last resort, intermediate appellate courts, courts of general jurisdiction and courts of limited jurisdiction. The Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals are the courts of last resort. The Supreme Court, in addition to having jurisdiction over all civil appeals, has a general superintending control over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards created by law and general administrative authority over all courts except the Court on the Judiciary and the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. The Court of Criminal Appeals has exclusive appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases.

The Court of Appeals is the intermediate appellate court authorized by the constitution and created by the Legislature in 1970. This court decides civil appeals assigned to it by the Supreme Court.

The court of general jurisdiction in Oklahoma is the District Court which has unlimited original jurisdiction over all justiciable matters. The state is divided into 26 district court judicial districts.

Courts of limited jurisdiction include the Court on the Judiciary, the Workers' Compensation Court, the Court of Tax Review and Municipal Courts. The Court on the Judiciary, consisting of a trial division and an appellate division, came into existence in 1966 with the adoption of a constitutional amendment. This court has jurisdiction over all proceedings brought against judges for removal from office. The Workers' Compensation Court hears and determines claims brought by employees against employers for work-related injuries. The Court on Tax Review, consisting of three district judges designated by the Governor, hears protests concerning tax levies. Municipal Courts hear prosecutions involving violations of municipal ordinances. Cities having populations of more than 200,000 have a Municipal Criminal Court of Record. All other Municipal Courts are courts not of record.

To assist the Chief Justice in exercising the general administrative authority of the Supreme Court over all courts in the state, the constitution authorizes the appointment of an Administrative Director and staff. The Administrative Office of the Courts works closely with the Supreme Court, and particularly the Chief Justice, in administering the judicial branch of government of the State of Oklahoma.

Overview

The Oklahoma Constitution grants to the Supreme Court appellate jurisdiction in all civil cases. In the event of a conflict over jurisdiction between the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Supreme Court makes the final determination. The Supreme Court also has a general superintending control over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards as well as administrative authority over all courts in the state except the Court on the Judiciary and a Senate Court of Impeachment. Additionally, the Supreme Court has the exclusive power and authority to discipline attorneys and pass upon the qualifications of all applicants for admission to the practice of law within the state.

The nine justices, one from each of the Supreme Court judicial districts, serve six-year terms. At the general election preceding the expiration of a term of office, a justice who desires to remain in office files a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. In a nonpartisan election, if a majority of those who cast ballots vote in favor of retention, the justice will serve another term.

Any vacancy on the Supreme Court is filled by gubernatorial appointment from a list of nominees submitted by the Judicial Nominating Commission. These nominees are selected by the Commission from a group of applicants from the appropriate Supreme Court judicial district.

The Supreme Court selects a Chief Justice and Vice-Chief Justice who serve two-year terms. In addition, the court appoints a Clerk of the Supreme Court and an Administrative Director of the Courts, who both serve at the pleasure of the Supreme Court. James W. Patterson, as Clerk of the Supreme Court, is responsible for maintaining all records of the Supreme Court. The Administrative Director, Charles E. Ferrell, Jr., assists the Chief Justice in his various administrative duties.

JUDGES OF THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

CASELOAD INVENTORY

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS

Overview

Jurisdiction of all criminal appeals rests exclusively with the Court of Criminal Appeals. The three-member court decides appeals from the District Courts and the Municipal Criminal Courts of Record.

The judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals are selected in the same manner as Supreme Court justices from three Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts. They serve six-year terms and are subject to a non-partisan statewide vote on their retention.

Effective the second Monday in January, 1989, two additional judges will be added to this Court. Two new Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts have been created. Any vacancies on the court are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court serves as the ex officio Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The Court of Appeals

OVERVIEW

CASELOAD

JUSTICES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS

Overview

The caseload of the Court of Appeals is comprised solely of civil appeals assigned by the Supreme Court. Final decisions of the Court of Appeals are not directly appealable to the Supreme Court, however, if a majority of the justices agree that certiorari should be granted, the decision may be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Each of the 12 judges of the Court of Appeals is assigned by the Supreme Court to one of four permanent divisions, two of which sit in Tulsa County and two in Oklahoma County. Two judges serve from each of the six congressional districts in the state. In a nonpartisan election, if a majority of those who cast ballots vote in favor of retention, the justice will serve another term.

If a vacancy occurs on the Court of Appeals, the Governor appoints a successor from the congressional district in which the vacancy exists. In making the appointment, the Governor may consider the recommendation of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court also serves as Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

Court of the Judiciary

The Court on the Judiciary consists of a trial division and an appellate division. The trial division is composed of nine members, eight of whom are district judges, senior in service and under the age of 60, and one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors. The appellate division is composed of two members of the Supreme Court, chosen by the court; one member of the Court of Criminal Appeals, selected by the court; one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors; and five district judges senior in service and under the age of 65. Each division of the Court on the Judiciary selects its presiding judge.

Any justice or judge of any court is subject to removal from office or compulsory retirement by proceedings in the Court on the Judiciary. Jurisdiction of the trial division of the Court on the Judiciary may be invoked by a petition filed by the Supreme Court or the Chief Justice, the Governor, the Attorney General, the Executive Director of the Oklahoma Bar Association (upon direction by the Board of Governors), or by resolution of the House of Delegates, or by resolution of the House of Representatives of the State of Oklahoma. After a full hearing, the trial division renders its judgment. From any judgment of the trial division, the respondent or the prosecutor may appeal to the appellate division which may affirm, modify, or reverse the judgment.

Judicial Nominating Commission

When a vacancy in a judicial office occurs, the Judicial Nominating Commission is required to accept the applications for the judicial vacancy, select three nominees and submit the names of the nominees to the Governor and the Chief Justice. The Governor shall, within sixty days, appoint a nominee to fill the vacancy. If the Governor fails to do so, the Chief Justice makes the appointment. The Administrative Office of the Courts assists the Judicial Nominating Commission in its duties.

The Judicial Nominating Commission consists of thirteen members. Six of the members are appointed by the Governor, one from each of the six congressional districts existing in 1967. These persons may not be lawyers. The active members of the Oklahoma Bar Associaion elect six lawyers to serve as members, one from each of the six congressional districts. A thirteenth at-large member who may not be a lawyer, is appointed by eight or more of the members. The members elect a chairman to serve a one-year term.

Dispute Mediation Services

The Oklahoma Dispute Resolution System, which focuses on mediation services, began November 1985. The statutory purpose of the program is to provide for all citizens of Oklahoma convenient access to fair, effective, inexpensive, and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes. Dispute mediation is an informal and effective way, with the aid of a neutral and trained third party, to reach an agreement in a dispute. Participation in the procedure is voluntary. Referrals to mediation may come from any community source, including court order. Mediation proceedings are confidential and may not be used in any later litigation. Both parties in the dispute participate in reaching an agreement. The mediating neutral party does not render a decision. Instead, he or she functions as a facilitator to encourage communication and creative problem solving in a safe, structured and positive manner. Mediators are trained by one of six state certified dispute mediation trainers, approved by their local program directors, and certified by the Administrative Director of the Courts. There are 250 certified mediators located throughout the state. The types of conflicts that are often mediated are between: neighbors, family members, landlord and tenant, customer and merchant, farmer and creditor, employer and employee, roommate and friend, or victim and offender. To date, there have been ten mediation programs certified. Five provide specialized services statewide, and five are community programs providing services regionally. It is the duty of the Administrative Director to administer and supervise the System's dispute resolution programs, as well as to encourage and assist in the establishment of new programs throughout Oklahoma, and to dispurse collected System monies to aid the local centers with operational expenses. The Director is assisted by a 15 member Advisory Board.

Administrative Office of the Courts

As authorized by the constitution and by statute, the Supreme Court appoints an Administrative Director of the Courts to assist the Chief Justice in exercising his administrative authority within the judicial branch of government. The duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Office of the Courts are grouped into three divisions: financial services, court services and legal services.

• FINANCIAL SERVICES DIVISION •

Fiscal and personnel matters are handled by this division which is responsible for appropriated funding requests, budgets, accounting and payroll support for the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and District Courts. In performing its accounting function, the Financial Services Division receives and processes all expenditures from appropriated and dedicated funds, reconciles monthly statements of account and provides statewide purchasing for the courts. In its personnel capacity, the Division provides the administrative accounting and clerical services necessary to maintain a work force of 487 judicial and nonjudicial personnel. This work force includes judges, trial court administrators, court reporters and secretaries for the District Courts, and justices, judges, judicial assistants, clerks, marshals, referees, secretaries and administrative staff for the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

• COURT SERVICES DIVISION •

This division is composed of sections providing a variety of services to the District Courts and the appellate courts. The areas of responsibility of the Court Services Division include data processing (Oklahoma Court Information System), local court fund budget assistance, and procedural reference service for court clerks. The primary objective of the Oklahoma Court Information System is to provide automated case management and tracking to the District Courts and appellate courts in addition to the auxillary information processing necessary for court operation. Initial plans call for total central information processing of all cases in the 18 counties with the largest caseloads. The balance of the counties will be served in the long-range plan by local micro-processor based units. Currently Oklahoma county and Tulsa County are utilizing the system for all civil cases and three additional counties are projected to be added to the network before the end of Fiscal year 1988. Criminal case processing software was installed in early FY-87 for use initially in Tulsa and then Oklahoma counties with expansion to other major counties in subsequent periods. In the appellate courts, the Appellate Case Tracking System provides data storage and retrieval capabilities for criminal as well as civil appeals. The Administrative Office of the Courts utilizes the Court Information System to monitor all financial activities and caseload statistics in the District Courts. The system is also used for internal management functions such as payroll, judicial personnel tracking and court reporter licensing and tracking. Electronic jury selection systems are ready to be activated in late 1987 in order to provide assistance to all District Courts for 1988.

Administrative Office of the Courts

• LEGAL SERVICES DIVISION •

Due to the diversity of its duties, the Administrative Office of the Courts has contact with a number of groups in and outside of the court system. The Legal Services Division interacts with judges, court clerks, court reporters, legislators and the general public.

Supplying legal information to various people in the court system is a primary function of this division. This includes conducting legal research, and monitoring legislation effecting the courts as it progresses through the legislative process.

Through the Legal Services Division, the Administrative Office provides assistance to the Council on Judicial Complaints, the Judicial Nominating Commission, the Oklahoma Judicial Conference, the Assembly of Presiding Judges, the Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and the State Foster Care Review Advisory Board.

The newest section of the Legal Services Division is the Dispute Resolution System. Begun in November, 1985, this system has a statutory purpose of providing to all citizens of Oklahoma convenient access to fair, affective, inexpensive, and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes.

To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose, the System receives, in a revolving fund, collected by all court clerks, $2 for every civil case filed in Oklahoma, and $5 from each party using the services of a volunteer mediator in a certified dispute resolution center.

It is the duty of the Adminsitrative Director to administer and supervise the local dispute resolution programs, as well as to encourage and assist in their establishment throughout Oklahoma, and to disburse collected System monies to aid the centers with operational expenses.

FUNDING SOURCES

Funding for the court system is derived from two sources. The primary source of funding is court generated funding from fines, fees and forfeitures. The secondary source of funding is state generated funding derived from taxes.

COURT GENERATED FUNDING

Court generated funding consists of fines, fees, and bond forfeitures collected by the 77 District Court clerks and the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

At the district court level, revenues received are used for the local operations of the District Courts. These expenditures are for items such as juror and witness costs, supplies, utilities for space occupied by the courts, attorney fees for indigent defense, bailiff and part-time court clerk employees, per diem court reporters, furniture, equipment purchases and equipment rentals. Additional expenditures include payments required by statute to be paid to the Judicial Retirement System, CLEET Fund, Dispute Resolution Fund and the County General Fund.

On a quarterly basis, each District Court Clerk files a report with the Administrative Office of the Courts that lists the local expenses and revenues and submits a deposit for the State Judicial Fund. The fees received by the Clerk of the Supreme Court are deposited directly into the State Judicial Fund. Two other sources of money for the State Judicial Fund are surplus funds transferred from the law libraries and court reporter license fees.

After payment of local court expenses, the balance of the State Judicial Fund is available for legislative appropriation to the District Courts. This appropriation pays the salaries and travel expenses of District Court judges and court reporters. Some direct costs of the Supreme Court are paid from the State Judicial Fund and require no legislative appropriation. These costs are: jury trials where the local court fund is insolvent, costs related to criminal change of venue, attorney fees for indigent defendants charged with first degree murder, expert witness fees, expenses related to the Council on Judicial Complaints, and expenses of the State Board of Examiners of Official Shorthand Reporters.

STATE GENERATED FUNDING

Because court generated revenues are not sufficient for all expenses of the state court system, some state generated revenues must be provided through legislative appropriations. The funding trend for the Supreme Court and District Courts for the past five years has been toward increased dependence on court generated funds.

The primary source of appropriated funding for the Supreme Court has historically been the General Revenue Fund, but with declining revenues the funding has shifted to a mixture of General Revenue and Workers' Compensation Funds. The Supreme Court does not receive funding from the State Judicial Fund except for statutory requirements illustrated on page 39.

The primary source of funding for the District Courts is the State Judicial Fund. Projected receipts to the fund, in excess of anticipated statutory expenditures, are certified by the State Board of Equalization and appropriated to the District Courts. The Judicial Fund is not large enough to completely support the District Courts and additional appropriated funding is required from General Revenue and other funds.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

CLERKS OF THE DISTRICT COURTS

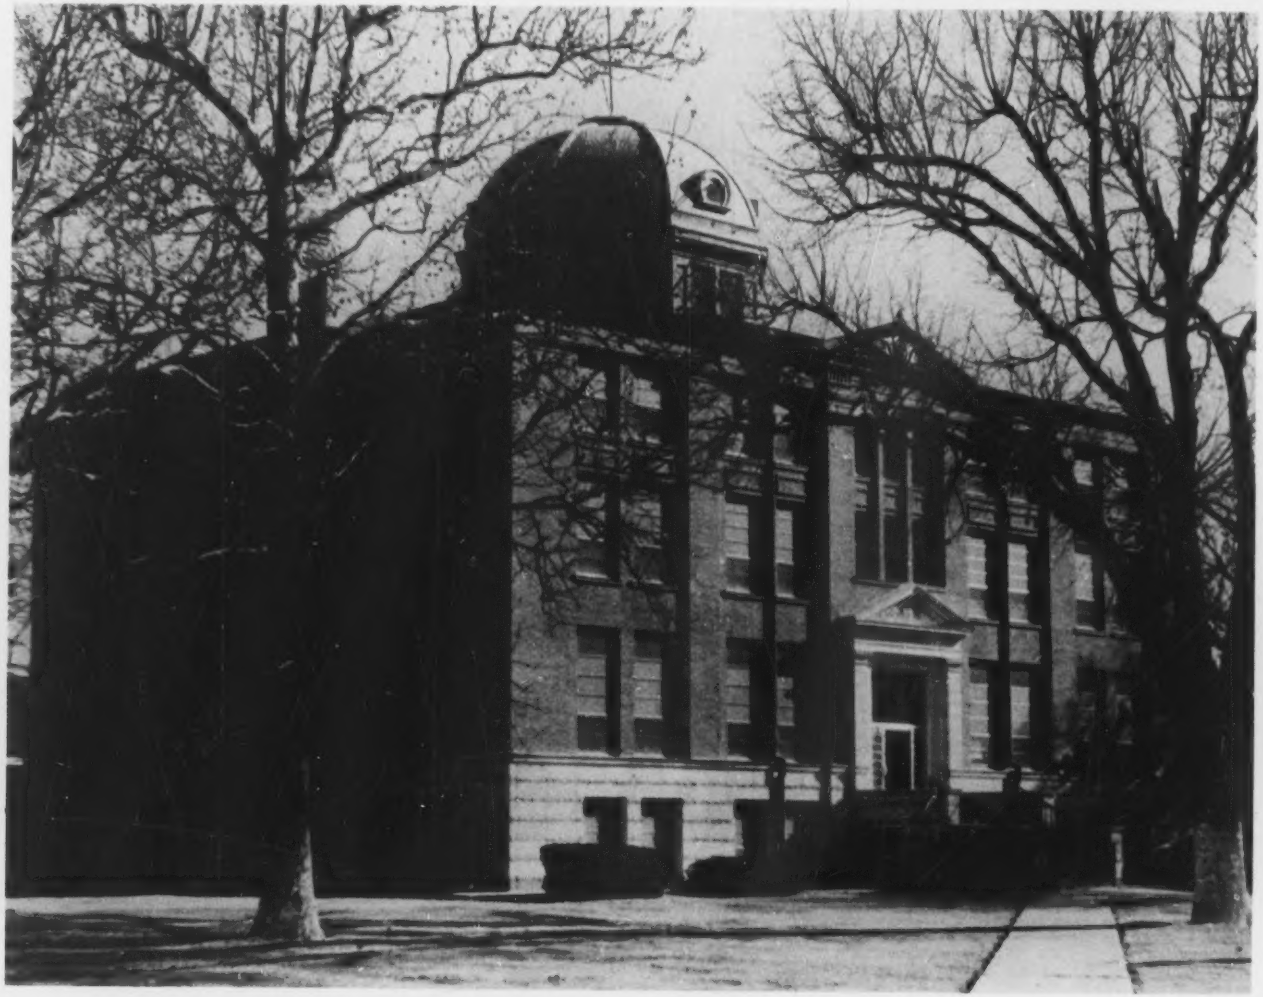
Overview

The District Courts have unlimited original jurisdiction in all justiciable matters and the power of review in administrative actions designated by statute. In addition, appeals from Municipal Courts not of record are heard by the District Courts as trials de novo.

There are 26 District Court judicial districts in Oklahoma. Each such district consists of an entire county or several contiguous counties. For the purposes of administration, the judicial districts are combined into nine judicial administrative districts. A district judge is selected as presiding judge by all the district and associate district judges within the judicial administrative district. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the presiding judge has general administrative authority and supervision over all courts within the district.

The District Courts consist of 71 district judges, 77 associate district judges and 58 special judges. District judges and associate district judges are elected for four-year terms in nonpartisan elections within their respective counties or judicial districts. If a vacancy occurs, the Governor appoints a replacement with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission. Special judges are appointed by the district judges of the judicial administrative district.

A District Court Clerk is elected from each county for a four-year term. Once elected, they serve as county officers and are responsible for maintaining all court records.



Blaine County Courthouse

Blaine County Courthouse - 1906

Blaine County, opened to non-Indian settlement by the land run of 1892, was one of six counties created from the former Cheyenne-Arapaho reservation. Originally known as County "C," voters named it to honor James G. Blaine, a United States Secretary of State and the Republican candidate for president in 1888.

The county seat was Watonga, a town organized in 1892 and named for an Arapaho chief. The first county offices were located in a wood frame, two-story building owned by M.P. and Fannie E. McCoy. The Blaine County commissioners paid rent of $80 a month.

In 1906 the present county courthouse was completed by the T. O'Keefe Construction Company at a cost of $42,137. Designed by the architectural firm of E. Coady Company, it was typical of courthouses constructed during the statehood era. The design was a combination of several architectural styles, but was primarily Neo-Classical, with a pedimented portico, colossal pilasters, and formal arrangement of the facade. The design also included elements of the Second Renaissance Revival style, such as distinctive horizontal zones and a grooved finish on the ground floor. Other features included a vaulted dome, arched windows, and ornamental brick work.

In 1978 the county commissioners constructed an annex to the county courthouse. Designed by Badgett Culver, the $98,000 building was erected by Industrial Projects. The addition utilized a Modern design using what apparently was similar building material to that used in the older building.

Excerpts from the Oklahoma Historical Society, "County Courthouses of Oklahoma", 1985.

Statistical Summary

Statewide Statistics for District Courts

Included in this section are tables and graphs summarizing the caseload inventory of the District Courts for fiscal year 1987. Civil cases are categorized as general civil, domestic relations, small claims and probate. Criminal cases are either felony or misdemeanor.

These tables and graphs depict statewide totals. The Annual Report Statistical Appendix contains statistical data for each county and District Court judicial district.

Also included is a chart which ranks the District Court judicial districts according to population per authorized judgeships and cases filed per authorized judgeships.

The final chart in this section shows the total statewide cost of legal representation for indigents during the last four fiscal years. Payments are made on the state level from the State Judicial Fund to compensate attorneys who are appointed to represent indigents charged with Murder in the First Degree. At the local level, payments are made from the local court funds to public defender programs and for representation of indigents in criminal trails, criminal appeals and mental health proceedings.

Introduction

District Courts
Statistical Information

The following pages contain the FY-87 caseload statistics for the 26 District Court judicial districts and the counties within each district. There are six major categories of cases reported: general civil, domestic relations, probate, small claims, felony and misdemeanor. For each of these categories, the number of cases filed, disposed of and pending is first presented, followed by a numerical breakdown of the methods of disposition.

Three of the major categories are divided into more specific case classifications with filing and disposition totals provided for each subdivision. Domestic relations cases are broken down into divorce, incoming reciprocal support, outgoing reciprocal support and all others. Felony cases are divided into felony D.U.I. and all others. Misdemeanor cases are categorized as misdemeanor D.U.I., traffic, and non-motor vehicle misdemeanor.

Caution should be exercised in using these statistics as a means of determining judicial workloads. Judges spend a great deal of their time counseling, researching, traveling and performing administrative tasks. Courts in metropolitan areas face heavy and specialized caseloads. In other areas of the state, the distance between the towns in which court is held, and the additional duties involved in working with multiple staffs, are factors which must be taken into account.

Additionally, due to a variety of circumstances, no two cases are exactly alike although statistically, they are considered equal. Because there are factors involved which cannot be readily shown quantitatively, these factors should be taken into consideration when the statistics are interpreted.
